

Pacific Northwest Chapter AFCEA International

Kimberly A. Rapacz, Ed.D., Colonel, USA Ret.
Vice President of Awards

Dr. Kimberly (Kim) A. Rapacz is the Director of G6, Mission Support Staff for I Corps, Joint Base Lewis-McChord, WA. She serves as an advisor and civilian deputy to the I Corps G6 on plans, policy, resources and requirements. She has served with the US Army Signal Corps in telecommunications assignments at every level - tactical, operational, and strategic. She has experience in information management, budget preparation and execution, planning and project management, training and team building. Dr. Rapacz has over 20 years of experience in the Pacific area working directly/indirectly for the United States Army Pacific.

Dr. Rapacz holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in International Relations from the University of Washington, a Master's degree in Computer Information Systems from Boston University, a Masters degree in International Relations from Troy State University and a doctorate in organizational leadership from Argosy University. She has served in AFCEA for over 12 years in various roles and served as a pivotal member and chapter officer to return the Pacific Northwest Chapter to active service.

<https://pnw.afceachapters.org> – info@pnw.afceachapters.org – Facebook – LinkedIn