

Pacific Northwest Chapter AFCEA International

MICHAEL “MIKE” Rivera, COL (R), US ARMY

Chapter Executive Vice President

Michael Rivera, COL(R) USA, is a leader in the corporate technology industry. He has served as an account executive for North America and the Pacific region, leading very large portfolios of consulting, technology, products and services. He has a unique ability to develop innovative solutions to meet the most challenging problems for the Federal Government. Currently he leads a logistics and operations delivery team for a major technology company.

Prior to joining the corporate sector, Mike served 25 years in the U.S. Army with 10 of those years focused on the Pacific. He led various operations, supply chain and logistics organizations across the Army in support of Divisions/CORPs, to Special Operations Forces Group around the world. Mike served as a Battalion Commander in 1st Special Forces Group and a Brigade Commander of the 404th Army Field Support Brigade both located in the Pacific Northwest at Joint Base Lewis McChord, WA. Mike holds multiple business degrees, technology certificates and has been recognized at multiple levels in the military and civilian sector for his knowledge expertise, innovation and leadership.

Outside the office, Mike enjoys spending time with his kids and is an avid athlete. As someone who has called the Pacific Northwest home for several years, he loves getting out on the mountains, water, trail biking, running, skiing and golfing.
